Employment History

Bonnie Maguffee established R. Work Group in 1990, with a mission to help employers, employees and job seekers to maximize participation in the workplace. She has a Masters Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling and is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and Certified Vocational Evaluator. She leads a diverse group of professionals (counselors, job developer, occupational therapist) who understand the unique needs of physical or mental health related issues in the work place. Our clients have included the Workers' Compensation Board, and are typically the worker or job seeker, private industry, insurance companies, law firms, and Alberta Human Resources and Employment.
